
Overcoming Anger and Bitterness

Genesis 4:1-16
02/06/22
Dr. Bradley S. Belcher

Introduction (Genesis 4:1-16)

1. Peace begins with appropriate _____ of God. V1-5

A. He is the One who _____ us into this world. V1-2 (Jeremiah 1:5; Psalm 71:6; Psalm 139:13-16)

B. He has given us a divine _____ in life. V2 (Ezra 7:10)

C. He is so worthy of our _____. V3-4 (Psalm 51:17; Romans 12:1)

D. Without the shedding of _____, there is no _____ of sin. V4-5 (Genesis 3:21; Leviticus 4:20; 4:26; 4:35; 5:10, 12, 18; 6:7; 17:11; Hebrews 9:15-28)

2. Peace is found through allowing Christ to _____ over our _____ . V5-7

A. Our anger and bitterness is our _____. V5

B. We need to choose to do what is _____. V6-7

C. Unrighteous anger and bitterness will _____ us. V7 (1 Peter 5:8)

D. Christ needs to _____ over our hearts. V7 (2 Corinthians 10:5)

3. Peace is found through _____ the _____ of our anger and bitterness. V8-12

A. Anger and bitterness separate us from _____. V8 (James 4:1-3)

B. Anger and bitterness separate us from _____. V9

C. Anger and bitterness keep us from _____ others. V9

D. Anger and bitterness bring _____ . V10

E. Anger and bitterness bring God's _____ . V11-12

4. Peace is found through _____ of our anger and bitterness. V13-16

A. As we put on repentance and put off _____. V13-14

B. As we return to the _____ of the Lord. V15-16 (Deuteronomy 4:29-31; Isaiah 55:6-7; Hosea 12:6; Joel 2:12-13; Matthew 11:28-30)

Connections

obc OAKWOOD BIBLE CHURCH