

My God Laid Down His Life For Me

1 Samuel 14:26-46

09/27/26

Dr. Bradley S. Belcher

Introduction (1 Samuel 14:26-46)

1. Overbearing _____ can become _____. V24-30

A. Life is already _____ enough as it is without adding more _____. V24

B. Arbitrary rules are never _____ or
_____. V24

C. Keeping _____ from what they need is
_____. V25-26

D. Legalism can become a _____ stumbling _____. V27-30

- The people were already _____ for lack of _____. V27-28

- Everyone was _____. V29

- Everything could have been much
_____. V30

- The _____ could have been
_____. V30

2. Overbearing _____ may bring about actual
_____. V31-35 (Genesis 9:4; Leviticus 3:17; Deuteronomy 12:16, 23-24)

3. Making _____ decisions can put others at
_____. V36-42

A. It is always _____ to draw near to _____ right where we are. V36
(Proverbs 3:5-6; Matthew 6:33)

B. Sometimes we need to _____ on God's
_____. V37. (Psalm 27:14; 130:5; Isaiah 40:31)

C. Our _____ can be incredibly
_____. V38-42 (Ecclesiastes 5:2; Proverbs 19:2-3; 29:20)

4. Amazingly, Jonathan was willing to _____ down his _____ for the nation.
V43-46

A. We need to be willing to lay down our _____ for what we _____. V43 (1 John 3:16;
John 10:11; 15:13)

B. Implementing unjust _____ is never
_____. V44 (Isaiah 10:1; Psalm 94:20)

C. Sometimes the _____ do get it
_____. V45 (Genesis 3:6; Exodus 32:8;
John 19:6; 19:15; Mark 10:45; 1 Timothy 2:5-6)

Connections

